New Language in Favor.

There are over 50 groups of Esperantists in the large towns and cities of Spain studying the new international language. Many business houses have adopted Esperanto in their correspondence.

ATTENTION, FARMERS!
We are having daily calls for farms for sale and rent.
Thomson, Muir & Barns.

Microbes in Ink.

A scientist has found microbes of various kinds in 77 samples of ink—red, blue and black—supplied to schools, and some of the microbes were deadly enough to kill mice inoculated with them.

The Women of Belgium.

No one can travel in Belgium without being struck by the extraordinary activity and prominence of the women. Over the doors of shops of all descriptions the name of the owner or owners is frequently followed by "Soeurs" or "Veuve." You find them proprietors of hotels and restaurants.
They are often custodians of the churches. They are employed to tow the boats along the canal banks. They cut up the meat in the butchers' shops, and they are even to be noticed shoeing horses at the forge.

The Lily of France.

There is a pretty tradition about the lily of France. Three black toads formed the curious device on the shield of King Clovis, but one night as an aged hermit sat musing in his lonely cell there appeared an angel before him bearing a shield of wondrous beauty.
On its azure front three golden lilies shone like radiant stars. This shield the angel bade the hermit deliver to Queen Clothilde. Receiving the celestial shield Clothilde gave it to the king, whose arms thenceforth were always victorious.—St. James' Gazette.

How a Cat Caught Two Rats.

I once had a cat who did a rather remarkable ratting feat. He stalked two young rats on the eaves of a low flat stable roof and caught one in the usual way. The other jumped on to an elderberry tree just below.

Bob, however, not satisfied with the one, grasped it firmly in his mouth and then jumped headlong for the other.
Either he was very lucky or extraordinarily agile, for he fell to the ground with one rat still in his mouth and the other in his paws and promptly killed them both.—Scotsman.

Alphabet in Bible Verse.

In the twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra can be found every letter of the English alphabet.
It runs thus: "And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily."

But, still more wonderful, in the eighth verse of the third chapter of Zephaniah is contained every letter, including finals, of the Hebrew language.—Westminster Gazette.

Ancient Glassmaking.

When the council of ten ruled Venice they issued a decree regarding the art of glassmaking. It runs: "If a workman carry his art beyond the limits of his country to the detriment of the republic, he shall be desired to return. If he disobey, his nearest relatives shall be imprisoned. If, in spite of their imprisonment, he remain obstinate in his wish to live abroad, an emissary shall be told off to kill him."

Scotland's Strange Birds.

From the small island of St. Kilda, off Scotland, 20,000 young gannets and an immense number of eggs are annually collected, and, although this bird lays only one egg per annum and its four years in obtaining its maturity, its numbers do not diminish. Obviously such birds must reach a great age or they would long ago have been exterminated.

Hymn 333.

A youth named Harry Jordan sat at an examination at one of the eastern colleges. When he learned the result he telegraphed to his people:

"Hymn 333, verse 5, last two lines.
Harry."

The anxious father turned to his hymn book and read the comforting couplet:

"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended, Jordan passed."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Partial Acquaintance.

Mrs. James, who is very tall, almost six feet, had called upon Mrs. Brown and, while sitting in her parlor, had made friendly overtures toward little Junior Brown. The child had gone out of the room before she arose to go.
Meeting him in the street the next day, Mrs. James said, "Don't you know me, Junior?"

"I know your face," answered Junior, peering resolutely upward, "but not the rest of you. I—I didn't s'pose there was so much of you."—Woman's Home Companion.

Temporarily Indisposed.

One of the workers in a Chinese mission became much interested in two Chinamen who, she found, owned a flourishing laundry business in her own home neighborhood. She looked in once in awhile to see how things were going with them and one morning found Sam smiling and cheerful as usual, but John was missing.

"Where is John this morning?" she asked.

"Oh," answered Sam amiably, "Christian gentleman hit him in the head with a bliek, and he all same in hospital!"—New York Times.

A Thief's Ruse.

Early one morning, many years ago, a burglar was running at the top of his speed along a London thoroughfare, pursued by a lady, who vociferated "Stop thief!" A milkman intercepted the fugitive, who promptly exclaimed:
"For heaven's sake, let me go. It's my wife, and she'll just about kill me." The milkman was a married man himself, and he allowed the malefactor to escape.

The Sunflower.

In some countries, notably in the Russian provinces north of the Caucasus, the sunflower serves other purposes besides ornamenting gardens with its huge golden bosses. The seeds are used to make oil, which is employed both in the manufacture of soap and in cooking. The stems and leaves are burned and the ashes used to make potash.

Locking the Telephone.

The telephone began to ring in the lawyer's office. He unlocked the little padlock on it, answered the call, then carefully padlocked it again.

"I always do that now," said he, "on account of my friends. I didn't the first month I took the office. At the end of that month I had a bill of $53.95, telephone calls. Oh, yes; long distance and every other kind."—New York Press.

Not the Boy He Wanted.

"So you want a position as office boy?"

"Yes, sir."

"Are you perfectly truthful?"

"Yes, sir."

"Never tell lies, eh?"

"No, sir."

"Then you won't do. I want a boy who can say I'm not here when I am and get away with it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cynical Jowett.

Professor Jowett's comments on the young men of Balliol often took the form of crushing sarcasms. "The college, Mr. X., thinks highly of you," he once said, "perhaps too highly, but not half so highly, I am sure, as you think of yourself." After a lengthy survey of one's person, as if one was some rare animal, he has been known to ask of the instructor, "Mr. A. is an intelligent young man, is he not, Mr. Y.?"

A Curious Fish.

There is a fish with four eyes along the sandy shores of tropical American seas. It is the anableps and is unique among vertebrates on account of the division of the cornea into upper and lower halves by a dark horizontal stripe and the development of two pupils to each orbit. One pair of these appears to be looking upward, the other sidewise.

"I hope you came out of that last horse trade of yours with a clear conscience."

"Yes," answered Si Simling, "but it kind o' worries me. My conscience is so unusually clear that I can't he'p feelin' I must o' got the wust o' the trade."—Washington Star.

His Act.

"Father," said young Si Cornsilk, "I have long desired to go on the stage, and now, with your permission—"

Hosea Cornsilk thoughtfully stroked his flame colored chin beard.

"All the world's a stage, my son," he said gently. "Take that hoe and dig up the potatoes in the half acre field behind the hopen."

The engagement lasted a week.—
New Orleans Times-Democrat.

History.

When Sir Robert Walpole retired into private life time hung heavy on his hands, and Horace exerted himself to amuse his father. One day he offered to read to him.

"What will you read, child?" asked Sir Robert wearily.

Horace suggested history.

"No, no," replied the veteran statesman; "not history, Horace; that can't be true."

Unhappy Hindoo Women.

The Hindoo holy books forbid a woman to see dancing, hear music, wear jewels, blacken her eyebrows, eat dainty food, sit at a window or view herself in a mirror during the absence of her husband and allow him to divorce her if she has no sons, injures his property, scolds him, quarrel with another woman or presumes to eat before he has finished his meal.—Liverpool Mercury.

The first work done in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, each day is the preparation of breakfast for 1,200 employees. The last of these meals is served usually before the earliest rising guest sleepily orders his eggs and coffee, thinking himself almost a hero to be breakfasting at such an hour.

"I can't stay long," said the chairman of the committee from the colored church. "I just come to see if yo' wouldn't join de mission band."

"To de lan' sakes, honey," was the reply, "doan' come to me! I can't even play a mouf organ!"—Ladies' Home Journal.

"Looks like rather poor soil in this part of the country," said the inquisitive stranger.

"Well, it ain't," replied the boastful native. "A man over on the adjoining farm plowed up a tin can with $50 in it one day a week or two ago."—Chicago News.

"Lobella," demanded Mr. McSwat, "I want to know what you've been doing to my safety razor?"

"Nothing," was Mrs. McSwat's indignant answer, as she moved around with slight limp. "Besides, Billinger, I don't believe it's a safety razor, anyway!"—Chicago Tribune.

Rector—Susie, I was sorry not to see your father at church this morning.
Susie—Please, no, sir. He went out walking in the woods. Rector—Ah, Susie, I'm afraid that your father does not fear the Lord. Susie—Guess he does too. He took his gun with him.— Nurse.

"He has everything to make a woman happy." "On the contrary, he has nothing but wealth." "Dear me!
What more can a woman ask of her husband than that he have wealth?"
"That he have brains, beauty, bravery!" "But"—"Or, failing these, heart disease!"—Exchange.

"We are what we feed on," quoted Mr. Hixson, laying down his book, "and I am willing to say the author is right. For example—"

"I am already a believer," Mrs. Hixson interrupted. "You will insist on having lobster for supper always."— Brooklyn Life.

Willing to Tell.

"One-half the world doesn't know how the other half lives," declared a notorious lady gossip.

"That isn't your fault," quietly observed one of her auditors.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker of ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns etc. 25 cent, at Oberdorfer's drug store. nov

Cigarette Figures.

A newspaper headline says that the "enormous growth of the cigarette habit is shown by figures." Quite frequently by their consumptive figures.
—Chicago Inter Ocean.

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 Congress street, Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: My mother, who old and very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c. nov

Stamp for the Religious.

Belgium has a Sunday postage stamp, issued for those who do not wish to have their mail delivered on Sunday. All mail bearing the Sunday stamp is held over by the carriers for delivery Monday.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50 cent bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result was followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough remedies." Sold under guarantee at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50 cents and $1. Trial bottle free. nov

Charities.

We tell our charities, not because we wish to be praised for them, not because we think they have great merit, but for our justification. It is a capital blunder; as you discover, when another man recites his charities.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, ss.

Temperature Causes Trouble.

The electric locomotives used in the Simplon tunnel are troubled with excessive condensation, affecting the insulation, due to the difference in temperature in the tunnel and outside.

They Take the Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at Oberdorfer's drug store. 25c.

Ought to Be Able To.

"Do you think he can afford to maintain an auto?" "He ought to be able to. He's been an amateur photographer for four years and hasn't gone into bankruptcy yet."

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to colds" says Mrs. Wm. H. Serig, No. 41, Fifth St., Wheeling, Va. "Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup." This remedy is for sale by W. T.
Brooks. You need no other guarantee.
